I learned how to analyze form of many different types of music, which will be very useful for my future in music.

1. I knew very little about form in this class, so I learned all of the basic information I need to be able to identify forms and what they are used for.
 2. I know a lot more about how the music I am playing is set up and put together. It helps with how you play the music.

I have developed a better sense of the overall form of a composition, allowing me to appreciate the structural unity of longer works.

by the final - I had really learned all of the concepts taught in class because it was accumulative really clear presentation of form; great prof.

I learned how to analyze music upon seeing it and this will help me if I come across a strange piece in my life time

1. I learned how to analyze musical forms.
 2. I now know how to apply what I learned to my own music-making.

Although theory is not my forte, the way the class was taught was accessible and easy to understand. I was able to grasp the information I needed, and I feel as though I walked away from the class understanding form more than I ever thought I would.

I wish that some of the hw could have been corrected so that we would know if we were doing it right

Although the instructor have helpful and informative handouts with all the information we needed to know for each portion of the course, there were sometimes when besides the sheet, we were given no further instruction on how to go about executing assignments. Afterwards, the instructor would explain in more depth, especially if the class requested it, but it would have been nice to receive the instructions before doing the assignment, as well as receiving more in-class teaching on the subjects before diving into the first assignment.

Dr. Feezell is very enthusiastic about what he teaches, and I appreciate that. Classes always have a positive energy. I like the word of the day, too.

great job! keep it up!

He is the best theory teacher I have ever had. I have had him for 2 semesters now, and he is always available to help and is very clear about what he expects of his students. I really like that.

I enjoyed this course and the instructor.

I appreciate my teacher's enthusiasm for music theory. He has done a good job of presenting the material clearly and enhancing the students' understanding. I expect that high quality of teaching will only improve as he continues to teach this course.

Dr. Feezell is a gifted and very dedicated teacher. He constantly double-checked to make sure we really understood the material, and he never hesitated to show his own enthusiasm and love of music.

Instructor was fantastic. one of the best in my time at smu.
